“ Learnit presented an entirely new and compelling way to engage global education leaders. Not only was the tone and format different from the start, the collection of speakers, delegates, and corporate partners was among the best I’ve seen. We found the event to be a lively, thought-provoking affair that has created a new community of peers working together to improve education.

ABOUT LEARNIT LIVE 2022

At Learnit, we believe an event that unites the global learning community and leads an intellectually honest conversation about the current state and future of learning, can revolutionise education, and ultimately change the world.

Our three day event combines sessions from 100+ world-class speakers, alongside networking opportunities to connect with likeminded educator leaders from institutions across the world. For the first time, in 2022, Learnit will be taking place alongside the Bett conference, in London’s ExCel. Learnit covers learning at all ages from Pre-K through to lifelong learning.

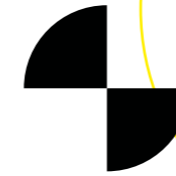

For 2022, our event will be fully hybrid meaning we will offer both an in person and online learning and networking experiences. We encourage those who can, to attend in person. To get involved in the 2022 event, email hello@learnit.world
